

Member A 2023

Duties

Executive Committee members take part in decision making & strategic planning of the Society's activities, including;

- Participation in face-to-face meetings (3 per year) & virtual calls with the Executive Committee
- Participation in the Society's Annual General Assembly at Congress
- Collective responsibility for the Society's finances with other Executive Committee members

Ideal candidate profile

- Committed member of EAS and should have regularly attended EAS meetings over the last six years
- Has been involved with EAS activities and have a good understanding of EAS structure and function
- Must be willing and able to give his/her time to the Society
- Must have a high degree of energy and enthusiasm
- Internationally well-known and actively involved in research in atherosclerosis
- Excellent scientific record and be a high-profile expert in his/her field
- Should not have any potential conflict of interest with other international societies